

The City of Billings Presents TRAIL TREK

August 30, 2009 10:00 A.M.

Public Utilities Park along Yellowstone River, east of Belknap

Trail Trek, started by the "Go Play" trail campaign, promotes a healthier community and the multi-use trail system in Billings! Come walk, bike, rollerblade, or run on the Kiwanis or Dutcher Trail and enjoy a delicious barbecue at Public Utilities Park. Other festivities will include a raffle for fabulous prizes and entertainment by local bands. For more information, log on to bikenet.org.

LIABILITY WAIVER: In consideration of being permitted to participate in the Magic City Trail Trek, which I understand will be open to members of the public who want to walk, run, bike, rollerblade, long board, or otherwise traverse a 6-mile course and will also include a barbecue at the end of the trip, I, for myself and/or minor child or ward, our heirs and personal representatives, agree that participation in sports such as these is inherently dangerous and involves risks and dangers of serious bodily injury, including permanent disability and even death, especially when participating with such a large group of diverse participants, and I have voluntarily decided to participate at my own risk or to permit my minor child or ward to participate at their own risk. I fully accept and assume all such risks and all responsibility for the losses, costs and damages which I or my minor child or ward may incur as a result of our completely voluntary participation in this event. Both individually, and on behalf of my heirs and executors, legal representatives, and minor children, I release and forever hold harmless, discharge and indemnify (including as to attorney fees) and promise not to sue the City of Billings, BikeNet, Safe Routes to School, volunteers, St. Vincent Health Care and other contributors to the Event or their associations, if any, for any claims, damages, expenses or demands arising directly or indirectly from or attributable in any way to the negligence, action or failure to act of each of them in connection with the Event and my or my minor child's or ward's participation therein. I attest that I am, and/or my minor child or ward is, qualified and in proper physical condition to participate in the event.
